We cannot go them taxes, for it is a lease that ked for, and our people will have ay $1 20 for gas, more than they pay and this agreeable condition of all all is is to continue for 50 years, regardless of declines in the price of coal, and regardless of everything else. EDDING .- On Wednesday evening

-past 5 o'clock, at the residence and Mrs. William E. Gilbert, in Md., Miss Mitylenes Jennings was married to Rev. Sanford omas Dunaway, of Accomac. The Rev. Wayland Dunaway, of Middleburg. The pride entered the parlor on the arm of her brother, Mr. Frank T. Euglish, and was met by the groom and his brother, Mr. Wayland Dunaway, jr., who acted as beet man. The bride was becomingly attired in a traveling suit of green camel's hair cloth, and carried a bouquet of La roses. The three little pieces of the bride were the flower girls. They were Miss Kathyleen Miller, of this and Misses Mary and Elizabeth ert, of Laurel. A reception followthe ceremony after which Rev. and re. Danaway left for a trip south. But future home will be in Accomac.

COMMITTEE MEETING. - A meeting of the juint committees on finance, streets and general laws, to consider the elecrathroad taxation, was held last There were present Chairman ger, Sweeney; Evans, Lawler and klin, with the Mayor, Corporation orney, Commissioner of Revenue and Auditor. There was a pleasant and harmonious interchange of views and the meeting adjourned after unanially directing the Corporation A! to prepare a measure to be sut-Dilled to the City, Council at its next The cousensus of opinion is that the railroad company should pay the cry about $2 000 a year in the shale of taxes or license.

garten held its Christmas celebration this morning, at 10 o'clock. A large bel hung in the centre of the room paper chains, made by the children, reaching to the walls. A beautiful tree was in one corner. There was a large number of the children's friends present, who enjoyed the songs and carols sung by the little ones. All the children present received presents and one and all had a most happy morning. The teachers deserve much praise for beautiful training which the children have received.

THE GAZETTE.—In commenting up-on the approaching centennial of the Gazette the Rockbridge News published at Lexington says: We congratulate the Alexandria Gazette upon its hearty old age. It is a paper whose appearance we always welcome in our aid in trying to obtain a condensed statement of the news fir our weekly issue and whose value we are are constantly appreciative of. In wishing it many more successful years we confess to a selfish interest and we hardly think there could be a m re direct compliment paid by one newspaper to ano her.
